日本の子どもたちをとりまく状況

2007年のユニセフのデータでは日本の子どもの5割が、将来フリーターや派遣のような仕事に就いているのではと不安を感じています。また、孤独を感じる子どもが3割もいます。これは先進国25カ国の中で日本がワースト1位です。

日本がダントツのワースト1位……

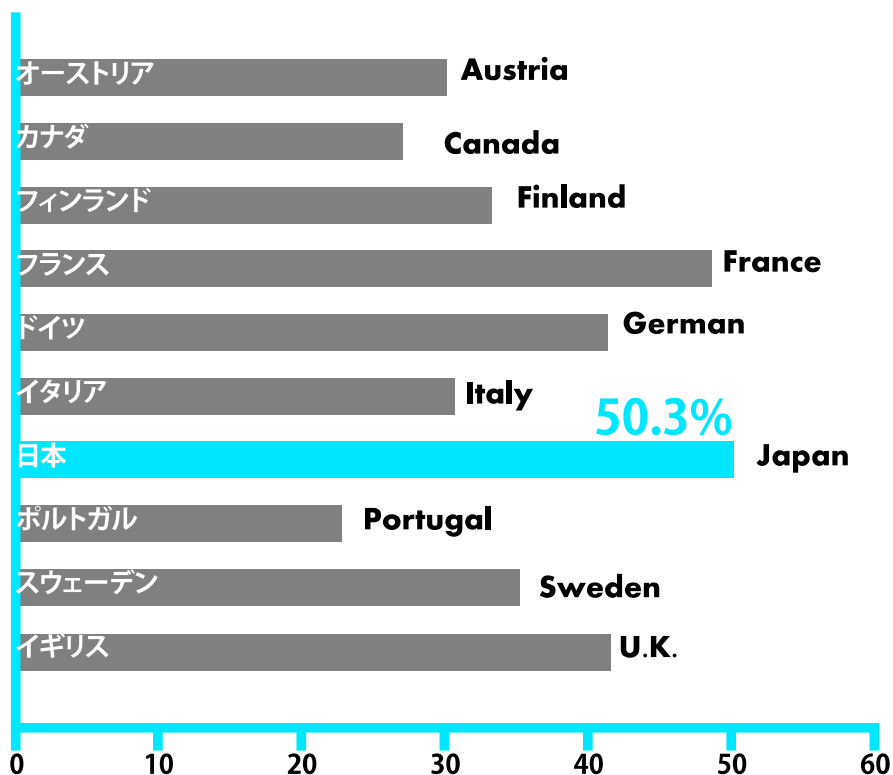

We are highly concerned with the fact that a large number of Japanese children today spend most of their time in their own houses. Lack of interpersonal communication outside their home can lead to negative psychological affects. In fact, a research conducted by OECD shows that as much as 29.8 per cent of Japanese 15 year-old children feel they are isolated; the highest figure among 25 developed countries.
